CALL TO WORSHIP

Pastor: We gather this morning to worship God in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!

People: Amen!

Pastor: Loving God, as we journey with your Son in this week of remembrance and hope, a week we call Holy Week, help us to be grasped by you and your love for the world more strongly. Transform us by the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and prepare us for service in your kingdom, through Christ, our Lord.

People: Amen!

Pastor: Like the people who greeted Jesus as he entered Jerusalem and then later cried, “Crucify him,” we are a fickle people who often deny Christ in our thoughts, words, and deeds. Remembering the events of Holy Week helps us to see ourselves for what we are: sinners in need of a Savior. In honesty and hope, we confess our sins to God.

People: O King of Glory, we confess that our praise of your majesty has often been faint. Our hands are not clean, our hearts are not pure. Have mercy on us, Son of David, Savior of our lives. Help us to lay at your feet all that we have and all that we are, trusting you to forgive what is sinful and to heal what is broken.“

Pastor: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called pastor of the Church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins. Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

We process into the sanctuary with palm branches lifted high. Please remain standing if you are able.

THE ENTRY INTO JERUSALEM

Narrator: When Jesus drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, he sent ahead two of his disciples, saying, "Go into the village opposite. There you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat; untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say, 'The Lord has need of it.'" So those who were sent went away and found it as he had told them....

People: And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

Peter: And they said, "The Lord has need of it." And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their garments on the colt, they set Jesus upon it.

Narrator: And as he rode along, they spread their garments on the road. As he was now drawing near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and to praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, saying:

People sing:

Refrain

All glo - ry, laud, and hon - or to you, re - deem - er, king,

to whom the lips of chil - dren made sweet ho - san - nas ring.

The mul - ti - tude of pil - grims with palms be - fore you went.

Refrain

Our praise and prayer and an - thems be - fore you we pre - sent.

Pharisee:            And some of the Pharisees in the multitude cried to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples! They're calling you the Christ. Tell them to shut up!"

Narrator:            He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent the very stones themselves would cry out."

People sing:

Refrain

All glo - ry, laud, and hon - or to you, re - deem - er, king,

to whom the lips of chil - dren made sweet ho - san - nas ring.

To you, be - fore your Pas - sion, they sang their hymns of praise.

Refrain

To you, now high ex - alt - ed, our mel - o - dy we raise.

Narrator:

And when he drew near and saw the city he wept over it, saying, "Would that even today you knew the things that make for peace! But now they are hid from your eyes. O Jerusalem! The days shall come upon you, when your enemies will cast up a bank about you and surround you, and hem you in on every side, and dash you to the ground, you and your children within you, and they will not leave one stone upon another in you, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

People:

Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

THE PREPARATION AND EATING OF THE LAST SUPPER

Narrator: Now, the feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called the Passover. And the temple priests were seeking how to put Jesus to death; for they feared the people.

Judas: Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was of the number of the twelve; he went away and conferred with the temple priests and officers how he might betray him to them. And they were glad, and engaged to give him money. So he agreed, and sought an opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the multitude.

Narrator: Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it.”

People: They said to him, “But where, Lord? Where will you have us prepare it, and what are we to do?”

Narrator: He said to them, “Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house which he enters, and tell the householder, ‘The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I am to eat the Passover with my disciples?’ And he will show you a large upper room furnished; there make ready.” And they went and found it as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. And when the hour came, he sat at the table, and the apostles with him. And he said to them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you, I shall not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves; for I tell you that from now on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." And he took bread and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." And likewise the cup after supper, saying, "This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. But behold the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. For the Son of Man goes as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"

People:                    And they began to question, "Who, Lord? Who is to betray you? Is it I?"

Narrator:                He answered, "He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me will betray me. Oh, it would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

Judas:                    Judas, who betrayed him, said, "Is it I, Master?"

Narrator:                Jesus said to him, "You have said so."

Peter:                    Simon Peter was indignant. "But not I!" he said. And he declared, "Though they all fall away from you, I will never leave you."

Narrator:                "Peter, truly I say to you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."

Peter:                    Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will never deny you!"

People:                    And so said all of the disciples, over and over again.

THE AGONY IN THE GARDEN

People sing:

I Go to dark Geth - sem - a - ne, All who feel the tempt - er's pow'r;
Your Re - deem - er's con - flict see. Watch with him one bit - ter hour;
Turn not from his griefs a - way; Learn from Je - sus Christ to pray.

Narrator: And he came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him. And when he came to the place he said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

People: Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us, deliver us.

Narrator And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless not my will, but your will be done."

People: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done. Thy will be done. Thy will be done—

Narrator: And when he rose from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow, and he said to them, “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation.”

People: Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, even the evil within ourselves.

Judas: While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him,

Narrator: But Jesus said to him, “Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

Judas: Judas said, “Hail, Master.”

People: When the disciples saw what would follow, they said, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?”

Peter: And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

Narrator: But Jesus said, “No more of this!” And he touched his ear and healed him.

People: Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Narrator: Jesus said to those who had come out against him, “When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness.” Then they seized him—

THE JUDGMENT

People sing:

2 Fol - low to the judg - ment hall, View the Lord of life ar-raigned;

Oh, the worm-wood and the gall! Oh, the pangs his soul sus-tained!

Shun not suf - f'ring, shame, or loss; Learn from him to bear the cross.

Narrator: Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him to the High Priest's house.

Peter: Peter followed at a distance; and when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

People: Then a maid, seeing him sit in the light, said, "This man also was with him."

Peter: But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him."

People: And a little later someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them."

Peter: But Peter said, “Man, I am not.”

People: An hour later another insisted, saying, “Certainly this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.”

Peter: But Peter said, “Man I do not know what you are saying!”

Narrator: And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed. And the Lord turned and looked at Peter.

Peter: And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and he wept bitterly.

Narrator: Now the men who were holding Jesus mocked him and beat him; they blindfolded him and demanded:

People: “Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?”

Narrator: And they spoke many other words against him, reviling him. When the day came, the assembly of the elders of the people gathered together and led him to their council;

People: And they said, “If you are the Christ, tell us.”

Narrator: But he said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe; and if I ask you now, you will not answer. But from now on the Son of Man shall be seated at the right hand of the power of God—”

People: And they said, “Are you the Son of God, then?”

Narrator: And he said to them, “You say that I am.”

People:           And they said, “Blasphemy!
What further testimony do we need?
We have heard it ourselves from his own lips.
Blasphemy! Oh, blasphemy!”

DAWN FRIDAY: JESUS BEFORE PILATE

Narrator:       Then the whole company of them arose, and brought him before Pontius Pilate.

People:           And they began to curse him, saying, “We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ the King!”

Pilate:           And Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Narrator:       And he answered him, “You have said so.”

Pilate:           And Pilate said to the Chief Priests and the multitudes, “I find no crime in this man.”

People:           But they were urgent, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout Galilee even to this place.”

Pilate:           And when Pilate heard that he was a Galilean, of Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod.

Narrator:       Where he was vehemently accused, and treated with contempt and mocked, and arrayed in gorgeous purple, and then sent back again.

Pilate:           Pilate said to the rulers of the people, “You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and after examining him, behold, I did not find him guilty of the charges against him. Behold, nothing deserving death has been done by him. I will therefore chastise him and release him-”

People: But they all cried out together, “Away with this man! Away! Release to us Barabbas—”

Narrator: Barabbas!—a man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and for murder—

Pilate: Pilate addressed them once more, desiring to release Jesus—

People: But they shouted out, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Pilate: “Why? What evil has he done? I’ve found no crime in him deserving death. I’ll chastise him. I’ll release him”

People: But they were urgent, demanding with loud cries that he should be crucified.

Narrator: And their voices prevailed.

Pilate: So Pilate gave sentence that their demand should be granted. He released the man who had been jailed for murder. But Jesus he delivered up to their will.

Let the wa - ter and the blood, From thy riv - en side which flowed,
Could my zeal no res - pite know, Could my tears for - ev - er flow,
Na - ked, come to thee for dress; Help - less, look to thee for grace;
When I soar to worlds un - known, See thee on thy judg - ment throne,

Be of sin the dou - ble cure: Cleanse me from its guilt and pow'r.
All for sin could not a - tone; Thou must save, and thou a - lone.
